A NEW ERA AT HAND

In the History of the Baptist Church West of the Alleghenies.

IMPORTANT MEETING AT SHARON,

To be Held Next Monday, When a Fund Will be Raised For

KEEPING TWO MISSIONARIES AT WORK

PETERIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR ! FRANKLIN, November 28 .- On Monday an important convention of Baptists of Western Pennsylvania will be held at Sharon, in Mercer county. The most progressive men of the denomination will be present. Unless all signs fail the gathering will mark an era of advancement in the religious history of Pennsylvania this side the mountains. There is a grievance at the bottom of it, but it is not a grievance that means an inter-denominational fight. The Baptist State institutions all have their headquarters in Philadelphia, and the denominational demands nearest to them have naturally received the most attention until the people of the West have come to feel that the interests of the denomination here have been neglected.

burg, a wild, rocky region with almost impenetrable clumps of brush and cedar trees and several subterranean recesses. have been neglected.
In the face of this, Rev. Mr. Hall, the pastor of the Baptist Church at Sharon, after building up a strong congregation where a small one had barely existed, has crowned the achievement by successfully establishing a collegiate institute where nearly 130 students are now receiving in-

OPENED THEIR EYES.

Recently a wealthy member of the de the basis for an endowment. This has opened the eyes of the Baptists of Northwestern Pennsylvania to things they may do for themselves, and the same lesson is brought home in the vicinity of Pittsburg by the success of the Mt. Pleasant in-stitute under Rev. Leroy Stevens. These educational institutions are the result of in-dividual work, and leading Baptists have arrived at the conclusion that organized de-nominational effort can accomplish things hitherto hardly dreamed of.

The first business of the convention at Sharon will be to raise funds to employ at least two missionaries to work among the weak churches and plant new ones where none exist. There is a great field for such labors at Kittanning; for instance, there is no Baptist Church, but it is known that there are at least 40 Baptist families, and one of the first results of the effort flowing from the Sharon meeting will be to organize them as a church. It is also on the programme to discuss the establishment of a Baptist family weekly and a publishing house at Pittsburg, and to strengthen the educational institutions by providing an endowment for

Hon. Charles Miller, ex-Mayor of this city, is ready to furnish a large share of the necessary cash. He says he will guarantee the salaries of the missionaries. Rev. Mr. Chapman, a wealthy retired clergyman of the East End, Pittsburg, will also furnish a large part of the sinews of war for whatever may be decided on.

THE MOST LIBERAL OF ALL. Mr. Miller is unexcelled in this section for liberalty. He is an oil refiner in the Standard combination and his income is estimated to be largely in excess of $50,000 a year. He is the financial backbone of the Franklin Baptist church and of the Third ward chapel. He bears the expense of a night school, at which nearly 100 young men are receiv-ing a business education. There is a debt of $4,000 on Hall Institute, and he has asstimed the payment of the interest until the debt is wiped out. He has guaranteed the payment of sums this year to various benevolences in excess of his annual moome, and enters with arder into the new plans to promote inntional growth. His partner, Mr. Sibley, is not so much heard of, but is hardly behind him. When they first formed a partnership, in the days when they were much poorer, they agreed that one-tenth of their income should be devoted to charity and religion. They give much neere than one-tenth now.

Their one dissipation is their stock farm, where blooded cattle and horses represent a large investment. They have horsefiesh closely related to Sunol, who lately broke the three-year-old record, and last week they had the, to them, the exquisite pleasure of refusing something in excess of $30,000 for

SEVERAL HEAVY FAILURES

Bawe Caused a Feeling of Planncial Uneanl-DOSS BY WHYNESBURG.

WAYNESBURG, November 28.-The report of several heavy failures within the last 24 hours has caused quite a stir in business circles. Ex-Sheriff D. A. Spragg made an assignment to his brother, Henry Spragg. This involved Dr. D. W. Braden and W. T. Gantz, Cashier of the Farmers and Drovers' National Bank. The entering of judgments began at midnight, and the Prothonotary has been kept busy and is likely to be for some time, as it is rumored that several other prominent business men

As yet the true status of affairs is not known, but the liabilities of those men-tioned above amount to many thousands of Some depositors who had money in the bank hastily withdrew their money, but the directors assured the people that there was no cause for alarm, as the bank could promptly pay every dollar of its deposits. The persons mentioned have been engaged largely in the cattle business in the West, and reverses in the est, and reverses in that business are said to have been the cause of their failure. It is probably the greatest financial crash Greene county has ever experienced.

THE SITUATION AT LEECHBURG.

A Relief Committee Appointed to Look After the Homeless Opes. ESPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATOR.

LEECHBURG, November 28.-Rev. Paffenberger, Dr. R. P. Hunter and Superintendent A. Hicks have been appointed as a relief committee, the object being to assist sufferers by the fire, who are not able to build, or fit out themselves for the winter. Temporary buildings are being erected by many to tide over till spring. Aside from some severe colds no one is much worse bodily, except John Bredin, who received a severe wound on the head

IN THE HANDS OF THE JURY.

The Insanity Pien of Murderer Hepkins Not a Strong One.

SEPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.1 BELLEFONTE, November 28 .- The last day of the trial of Hopkins opened with evidence in rebuttal of testimony offered by defense to prove insanity. The evidence by the prosecution is very conclusive, and breaks down all the testimeny of the defense. All the witnesses called gave evidence that Hopkins was perfectly sane up to a short time before the murder and immediately afterward. This afternoon was devoted to arguments and the Judge's charge. The jury retired this evening, but have not at this writing returned a verdict.

The Neff Trial Nearly Over.

PRINCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, PA., November 28.—The charge of Judge McIlvaine in the case of James Neff, charged with complicity in the murier of William McCausland, will be given to the jury at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. Captain Dovenor occupied the entire morning and the greater part of the afternoon in an address for the defense. He was followed by M. S. Anderson, of Youngstown, for the Commonwealth. The courtroom was literally jammed all day with attentive listeners.

A BEAR DEFIES HIS PURSUERS.

The Animal Terrorizes the People of Very Large Section.

POTTSTOWN, November 28 .- The wildest excitement and terror prevail among the citizens of Lower Potts Grove, Limerick and adjoining townships in Montgomery county because of the big black bear that is still at large and defies all efforts at capture. People are afraid to send their children to school and only when well armed do the men venture out after night for fear of eucountering the animal. Hunting parties have chased him over the hills and through dense thickets and endeavored to kill him with rifle shots. Several of the balls took effect, but they were not in a vital part and only infuriated the beast, who turned on his pursuers and forced them to turn back. John F. Betz, the Philadelphia brewer, offers $50 reward for his capture and he has several men in constant search for him. It is the absorbing topic of discussion in this section and many parties from Pottstown have journeyed to the neighborhood of Bruin's haunts to get a glimpse of him. His hiding place is in the vicinity of Pruss-

A 5-Year-Old Boy Concents the Accidental Drowning of a Playmate.

SCRANTON, November 28. - Willie Hughes, aged 5 years, who disappeared from home in Caponse Works last Friday, was found floating in the Lackawanna river. A nomination purchased for $10,000 an old mansion and 12 acres of ground near Sharon, and donated it to the Institute as the best for the decay of the best for his body had been instituted through the acknowledgment of another little bey named Littlejohn, who stated they were playing on a plank in the river near the boy's home and he accidentally fell in the swift current caused by the heavy rains and was borne away before he could call for help. The Littlejohn boy said nothing of the occurrence at the time, and, no trace of the missing child was found until yester-

Littlejohn's father was awakened during the night by the sobs of his child, who was rolling about in bed and talking in his sleep, calling, "Willie, come out," "Don't fall in," and other similar expressions. The father awakened the child, and, after quieting him, asked what was troubling him. The child then told of the Hughes boy's drowning, where he fell into the river and said the reason he had not told was because he feared a whipping.

NOT THE RIGHT MAN.

An Alibi Proven for a Person Arrested as a

Murderer. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. BELLEFONTE, November 28.-The man who was arrested at Vanderbilt last night for the murder of Clara Pierce was released this morning, he having proved a satisfactory alibi. The girl had three bullet holes through her body, and was lying in the middle of the road. She was good looking, 18 years of age, and the daughter of David Pierce, of Karthaus. The result of the inquest shows that she had been as-saulted, probably by a tramp who had been saulted, probably by a tramp who had been seen following her a short time before.

His description is 5 feet 6 inches tall, heavy set, smooth red face, wearing light gray clothes and a dark derby hat. The murder was committed just this side of Karthaus bridge, in Center county. There are a large number of men hunting him, and should he be captured just now there would likely be a lynching, as the excite-

She Wants Damages for the Loss of Her WEST CHESTER, November 28 .- There is a case now on trial in the Common Pleas Court of Chester county which is of interest to a large portion of the community. It is the suit brought by Mrs. Catharine Griffith against the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad for damages for the death of her husband, Conductor Abel Grif-

Conductor Griffith was killed on the West Chester and Philadelphia Railroad by a collision at Clifton station during the terrible blizzard of March, 1888. He was on the engine that was forcing its way through the drifted snow when it struck a train that was fast in the drifts. He was so badly injured that he died in Philadelphia the next day. Mrs. Griffith names no amount of damages in her plea.

MOONSHINE WHISKY

Responsible for Any Amount of Bloodshed in the West Virginia Mountains.

CHABLESTON, W. VA., November 28. A letter from Bramwell, Mercer county, says the shooting affrays there among the coal miners have averaged one a day for the past week. The letter says: "Two were shot to-night, one having seven bullets in him. He is still alive. Some of the others him. He is still alive. Some of the others are dead, and two or three can't live. On Elkhorn last night W. G. Robinson was shot at by Eugene Roberts. The ball struck a large pocketbook full of papers in his left side pocket, just over the heart. The shock knocked him down, but he jumped up and fired three shots at Baldwin, who ran. Robinson thinks one of the shots hit Baldwin. win."

THE Lancaster County Commissioners aston-shed the oldest inhabitants by reducing the tax rate for the coming year from 2½ to 2 mills. They also found that their finances were in shape to enable them to pay off $60,000 of county bonds next spring, and they resolved to do so. This will reduce the bonded indebtedness of the county from $20,000 to $150,000.
